

ENGHUM Summer School

Transdisciplinarity in Language Documentation and Revitalisation 14th - 21st June 2016

Programme (draft)

The focus of the summer school is on working across disciplines on issues of language and identity, language vitality and language maintenance and revitalisation. It will include case studies in the UK and elsewhere, together with engagement with a local London minority community through the SOAS Sylheti project.

Tuesday 14th June SOAS Sylheti Project 1 Software Tools and Workflow Wednesday 15th June Languages and education in UK Language and identity in Mexico Audio/video 1 Thursday 16th June Documentation, revitalisation and archiving SOAS Sylheti Project 2 Audio/video 2 Friday 17th June Language and Identity in Senegal Kurdish language and identity Practical session: the UK situation Senegal film showing	Saturday 18th June Site visit with community Monday 20th June New speakers Revitalisation in Wilamowice, Poland Language and identity/revitalisation case study on Welsh Tuesday 21st June Researching attitudes, identities and policies SOAS Sylheti Project 3 Hands on: attitudes, identities and policies NOTE: Final sessions of the day could be lab sessions or library research or free time.
---	---

Experts: Julia Sallabank, Peter Austin, Jenny Needs, Justyna Olko, John J. Sullivan, Tom Castle, Abelardo de la Cruz, Birgul Yilmaz, Candide Simard, Dina Mehmedbegovic, Friederike Luepke (and Crossroads Project team), Justyna Majewska, Tymoteusz Król.